Ommegang Abbey

Ommegang, brewed in Cooperstown, NY, is owned by Belgium's Duvel-Moortgat. Little wonder, then, that Ommegang's lineup of brews hew closely to classic Belgian lines, especially their first beer, the 8.5 percent ABV Ommegang Abbey. This sweet and spicy double style, all a-swirl with notes of licorice, caramel and dark stone fruits, is generally paired with meaty dishes like carbonnade Flamande, roasts or rich cheeses.
